Sophomore Class Outshines Other Floats, Wins Cup

Outshining all other entries for originality, noise, and students participating, the Sophomore Class, under the presidency of Ben Melder was awarded the perpetual trophy by the judges at the third annual noise parade held last Friday afternoon.

The winning float was a huge hook and ladder outfit, which was literally covered with sophomores. Chalking up eight points for noise by the use of sirens and fire bells, the Sophs walked away with the first prize.

SPEARS SECOND

The Spears, although presenting an organized rooting group, failed to score for originality, thus taking only second place. Ranking below them was the Club 479, which entered the Queen of Pacific and was given honorable mention for originality.

The perpetual trophy was presented at the student body dance Saturday night by judges Mrs. Rae O. Wirtz and Dr. Boris Lubowski, who were assisted in making a decision by Elbert Garcia.

P. E. MAJORS GOOD

Outstanding among the organizations were the physical education majors, who paraded in the football bus, dressed in baby outfits, exemplifying the Spartan Babes.

Several groups entered hay wagon floats, which failed to impress the judges. Among those who turned hay seeds for the occasion, were Kappa Kappa Sigma and Sappho societies.

Beta Gamma Chi showed marked originality for their entry. Just

Choose Next Grid Queen Tuesday

Once again student-body choice will bring an attractive co-ed into the limelight when it votes tomorrow for a campus Sweet-heart to rule over the big Santa Clara game Saturday.

But nominations must be made today so that ballots containing the girls' names may be printed in the Daily for popular vote. All suggestions for queen must be in the publications' office by five o'clock today.

Only those co-eds who are nominated before this deadline will be candidates for the coveted royal position. Organizations or individuals may nominate.

Tomorrow's voting must be done legally, according to the election committee as ballot-stuffing is absolutely taboo. Candidates whose supporters are caught in the act of "stuffing" will be disregarded in the final vote count.

Don't forget to nominate.

Grid Score Results

Ruth Holmes and Constance Raitano have been declared winners of the "Grid Score Contest" for the Pacific game, picking San Jose by a score of 6 to 0 score. Their awards will be given Tuesday at the Publications office by Miss Gray.

A ballot for the Santa Clara game will be run in Tuesday's Spartan Daily.

Rally Committee To Make Campus Canvass Of Males

To ascertain the exact number of students entering the rooting section for the Santa Clara game, Saturday, the rally committee upon the suggestion of Bob Free, chairman of card stunts, has been organized into several small groups which will canvass the campus during the week.

With printed cards, bearing the row and seat number the student has been assigned to, the committee will approach every male member of the student body this week.

CARD STUNTS

The plan as presented to the group by Free at its last meeting is to organize the men in the card stunt section with the women students in front alongside the band and across the top of the stadium.

Before the cards are given out on the campus, the men will be requested to wear white shirts. No one in colored shirts will be allowed in the section.

GALS, TOO

The women students will play a definite part in the proposed card stunts. They will be grouped around the section of men waving the colored pompons which the Spartan Spear members will make and sell at the game. For this section of the stadium, Free urges that the women wear as brilliantly colored clothes as possible, as a direct contrast between the white of the male section and the color of the female group is desired.

It is hoped that by the Santa Clara game the rooters' caps will be on the campus with the megaphones which were promised for the beginning of football season.

Fourth Quarter Offensive Drive Results In Touchdown, Safety As DeGroot Team Shows Decided Improvement

By DICK EDMONDS

Unleashing a devastating second half offensive after being outplayed in the opening periods, a fighting San Jose eleven handed the College of Pacific Bengals a sound 8 to 0 thrashing in the traditional clash between the two teams in Spartan stadium Saturday.

After being stymied by a fine Pacific line in the first half, Coach DeGroot's cohorts came back to register a decisive victory over a favored Stagg eleven.

San Jose supporters got their big opportunity for an exhibition of enthusiasm early in the fourth quarter when, after losing the ball through a fumble on the seven yard line, the Spartans, Herb Hudson and Jack Martin, rose up in their might to smear would-be Tiger punter Coe behind his goal line for a safety.

Tony Merino started the fireworks with a six-yard gallop on a reverse. On two tries at the line, Owen Collins, speedy half-back who got his first big chance yesterday and came through with flying colors, picked up 12 big yards.

From here Norm Sanders, whose quarterbacking in crucial moments was well nigh perfect, made three on a sneak and "Bull" Lewis passed to Merino for a 14-yard gain to the Pacific 22-yard marker. After Collins had picked up a

Grid Queen Enters Stadium Heralded By Great Fanfare

Heralded by a fanfare of trumpets, Henrietta O'Brien entered the Spartan Stadium Saturday to make her debut as Co-ed Sponsor of State's victorious battle with the College of the Pacific.

Carrying a huge bouquet of gold and white chrysanthemums and escorted by student body officials, the attractive 17-year-old waved to the Pacific supporters before coming to the State bleachers.

"Hello, everybody; I just know we'll win" was her greeting and prophesy to the local rooters through the public address system before her official welcome of the two captains.

Indicative of San Jose spirit, the queen led the after-game serpentine across the field to the Pacific stands, greeting the Tiger rooters from the bleacher railings.

Sophomores Victors In Noise Parade Contest

Married, while Ero Sophian Society entered the Belles of the Campus. Allenian partially repeated their float of last year, then awarded first prize, by dressing as firemen and hauling an old fire hose.

Campus fraternities represented were the S.G.O.'s who had a small band on the back of a car, and the D.T.O.'s who hauled a wagon.

A.W.S. and Kappa Phi were both placed on large trucks, with the latter calling themselves the Old Dong Belles. Entering cars which were only slightly decorated, were the college Y. W. C. A., and Spartan Managers.

FINE SPIRIT SHOWN

More than two score private cars followed the parade, which fact was commented on by the judges as showing a truly fine spirit.

"I think it showed a real nice spirit", said Dr. Lubowski, who assisted in choosing the winner.

"And I think it is the best we have ever had," Mrs. Wirtz of the commerce department said, when interviewed.

Bill Moore, chairman of the parade, congratulated the organizations for the splendid spirit they showed in participating, and thanked the members of his committee for their excellent work in organizing the procession.

Anastasi Chosen Legal Club Prexy At Thursday Meet

Anthony Anastasi was elected president Charlotte Filmore vice-president and Masco Kanemoto secretary of the San Jose State college pre-legal club when the organization met Thursday in Room 11.

Anastasi was the first president of the club when it was established three years ago. He was also elected president of the Spartan Senate at a recent meeting of the club.

NATIONAL, MAYBE

Plans were discussed for joining the San Jose State club with a national honorary pre-legal organization. Anastasi is busy at the present time considering the different organizations and will report his findings at the next meeting of the club today at noon.

Speaking in favor of joining a national organization Anastasi said, "Such action would increase pre-legal student interest in their courses and would act as a real stimulant."

Owen M. Broyles, club adviser and economics faculty member presented the views and aims of the club in a short talk.

BROYLES SPEAKS

"If you will let it," Broyles said, "the pre-legal club can be of great value to you. Become active in the club and talk your problems over with your fellow students."

Broyles told of tentative plans for speakers. Last year's speakers were all members of the legal profession, including District Attorney Thomas, of Santa Clara County, Dean Owens, head of Santa Clara University law school and Harvard graduate, and John D. Foley, San Jose attorney.

Meetings will be held every other Monday starting October 12 at 12:30.

Music Lovers Witness Year's Second Musical Half Hour At Theater

Before a large audience in the Little Theater Friday, Margaret Melliar, soprano, and William Tyler, violinist, presented the second Musical Half Hour of the year.

Miss Melliar, accompanied by Margaret Thomas, sang two groups of songs. The first group was "A Lovely Rose" by Quilter, and "The Little Shepherd's Song" by Watts.

In her second group she sang "The Crying of Water" by Campbell-Tipton, "Across the Blue Agave Sea" by Branscombe, and "My True Love" by Hadley.

William Tyler, violinist, performing alternately with Miss Melliar, played the following selections: "Adoration" by Borowski; "Elegie" by Pers, and "Air from Suite in D Major" by J. S. Bach. He was accompanied by John Andrews.

NOTICE

Pre-Nursing club will hold a regular meeting today in Room 227 of the science building. All new members cordially invited. Bring your lunch.

Bids For Big Game Hop On Sale Today For Paltry Sheckle

Bids go on sale today at 12:30 in the Quad for Saturday's Santa Clara-State "Big Game" dance at the price of one dollar. During the week the sales will continue at noon for the hop that has recently added the attraction of promised feteing of three football queens.

Martha Sayre and Henrietta O'Brien and the as yet unchosen Santa Clara football queen will be honored guests. Other football atmosphere in the line of decorations the dance will be what the sponsors term a "Football Fete".

The Stanford Ambassadors will play for the affair which will be held at the Scottish Rite hall after the Santa Clara game from nine to one o'clock.

Players Get New Rooms For Sets

Remodeling of rooms in the basement of the Speech building which was accomplished during the summer has resulted in greater space and improved working conditions for the technical staff of the San Jose Players.

As sets, draperies, and other properties used by the players in their dramatics productions are largely constructed in this basement, the need for more room has been felt on many occasions.

Since the improvements have been made, there are separate rooms for painting and for construction, and each room is larger than before.

Technical work is supervised by Hugh Gillis, dramatics director, while stage manager is Peter Mingrone.

Spartan Knights Sponsor Program

Under the sponsorship of the Spartan Knights, the men's honor and service organizations will take over the regular freshman orientation hour Thursday in a program instigated to acquaint the new students with these groups.

Don Walker will be chairman of this affair from which all women students are excluded and open to all men who may wish to attend.

Each organization is to be allowed five minutes in which to present themselves in any way they wish.

Following is a list of those going before the assembly in this annual presentation; Spartan Knights, Tau Delta Phi, Phi Mu Alpha, Artizans, Iota Sigma Phi, Radio, P. E. Majors, Y. M. C. A., and Chi Pi Sigma.

Delta Nu Theta Honor Society To Hold Meet

Delta Nu Theta, home economics honorary society, will meet tomorrow in Room 35 at 7:30 for a short meeting. The group will then attend a theater party to see "Anthony Adverse".

At the opening of the meeting of the society last week, Doris Arnold, president, gave a report on the home economics convention at Seattle to which she was sent as a delegate. Dr. Margaret Jones, head of the home economics department, and Ruth Bigelow member of the society, also gave reports on the convention.

The meeting was held at the home of Miss Helen Mingnon, faculty adviser. Other active members of the society told of their summer activities, and plans were made for the following year.

Sport Spotlight by DICK EDMONDS

SEVERAL STOCKTON students who term themselves "The spirit of Pacific" are today probably wishing they hadn't been so hasty in spending their money for a telegram to Captain Les Carpenter of the Spartans.

Shortly before game time, the Bengal "well-wishers" had a telegram delivered to Les something like this, "You are in for it this year. Let us know when you have had enough."

The old saying, "a fool and his money are soon parted" certainly strikes home in this instance.

ANOTHER TELEGRAM, in a much different vein, was also received by the Spartan gridgers shortly before they ran on the gridiron to score their sensational victory over Alonzo Stagg's men.

From Doctor MacQuarrie, away on a business mission, came a message of good wishes to Coach DeGroot and his men. Our genial president's thoughtfulness was much appreciated by the squad.

I WISH TO go record as stating that Jerry Girdner and his yell-leading deserve a lot of credit for their excellent work on Saturday.

Whatever differences in opinion that Girdner and I might have had are now cleared up and I sincerely hope that he and his "pep" men continue to get even better support from the student body of San Jose State.

You did a great job, Jerry, greater than many Staters have seen of late, and I am sure that you are on the right track towards making this year a great one from the "pep" standpoint.

YOU STUDENTS who didn't get out to the stadium Saturday in time to see DeWitt Portal's freshman eleven work against the heavy Bengal Cubs missed an exhibition of grit and spirit that is hard to find.

This year's Frosh, while lacking much of the individual brilliance characterizing last year's squad, have already set up a record that was not equaled by the 1935 aggregation.

They deserve a lot of support and State fans could do a lot worse than to get out there and back them in their "big game" next Saturday noon when they tackle the tough Broncolets.

INDIAN "SHIN-KICKERS" HAND SPARTAN SOCCER ELEVEN SECOND CONFERENCE DEFEAT AS STATERS FAIL TO KICK GOALS

Spartans Win Brilliant Tilt From Bengals

Lewis And Rocchi Lead Offensive As Line Excels

couple of yards on a buck at the line, Lewis again hurled to Merino, this time good for five yards. A flashy lateral pass with Merino on the receiving end carried the ball to the seven-yard stripe where the fumble occurred giving Pacific its fatal kicking opportunity.

ROCCHI RACES

After a kickoff which diminutive Gene Rocchi raced back to the San Jose 44-yard line, the Spartan offense started off on a march which ended when Rocchi, a spunky, heady back who was in Stagg's hair all afternoon, sped off right tackle on a perfectly executed reverse for 46 yards and a touchdown. The tiny San Jose back was aided by some excellent downfield blocking on the part of Don Baldwin who put a crashing block on the last man between Rocchi and pay dirt.

Luke Argilla's kick for the extra point was blocked but few of the excellent San Jose rooting section seemed to care.

Santa Clara football supporters, on hand for the purpose of getting a little material on the Spartans for next week's attraction, were perceptibly a little less confident of a landslide Bronco victory after watching DeGroot's warriors pound the Bengals into submission with as pretty a display of second-half offensive power as has been seen in the local stadium for several years. San Jose's scrappy forward line definitely showed that the talented Santa Clara backs aren't going to be able to run wild as many a Bronco fan will attest.

STARS APLENTY

To single out individual stars in Saturday's clash is doing an injustice to every Spartan who took part in outfighting the Stockton aggregation.

Nevertheless, particular mention must go to Captain Les Carpenter and Norm Sanders whose signal-barking upset the Bengal defense. Coach DeGroot had effusive comment for the manner in which these two gentlemen conducted the Spartan uprising.

Gene Rocchi, the speedy San Jose lad, Tony Merino, his replacement, and Owen Collins, all played exceptional games. Bill Lewis, colorful fullback, came into his own as a punter, holding the touted Tiger kickers even.

By "STU" FOOTE

Playing on a wet slippery turf at Spartan field Saturday morning, Coach Charley Walker's soccer aggregation dropped its second conference game to Stanford to the tune of 3-0.

The lads from the farm scored in all quarters, except the third. San Jose did its share of the offensive playing but the local shin-kickers lacked that certain quality that puts the pelota into the net.

CORNER KICK

Stanford's first score came early in the opening period when one Mr. Parker, combining the "English" skill of a well seasoned pool player and the kicking ability of an army mule, booted a corner kick right into the goal to the great amazement of the locals.

During the second quarter the spectators were treated to a display of State's potential power when the local lads piled in and kicked the ball and the Red's goal-keeper simultaneously into the net. The referee, however did not approve of such vigorous tactics and State's goal was not counted. Toward the end of this quarter Stanford scored on a pass from Schupp to Lowe who promptly booted it thru the goal. Stanford's last tally was made in the fourth stanza by Lowe, aided and abetted by Knecht.

EFFORTS VALIANT

For San Jose, LeClergue, Main, Nepote, Harris and Edmonds were outstanding in State's valiant efforts to halt the red "Injuns". Lowe, Parker, Hems, and Knecht were the mainstays of the Stanford team.

Line-ups:

San Jose	Stanford
Edmonds	G.
LeClergue	R.F.B.
Germano	L.F.B.
J. Wiles	C.H.
Hogan	R.H.
Everett	L.H.
Harris	C.F.
Nepote	I.R.
Main	I.L.
Wall	R.W.
Marsh	L.W.
	Parker

Substitutions: (For San Jose) Pitcher, Pavioni, Olavarri, Harper, Drexel, Weed, and Stul. (For Stanford) Nightingale, Williams, Saddullah, Noll, Knecht, Pinott, and Naquin.

His passing was accurate and his lunges at the line kept the Tiger line fighting to keep from being pushed into the sod.

Seldom has a Spartan line shown the ruggedness displayed by Saturday's forwards. Lloyd Wattenberger, end, who time and again spilled the Pacific interference to permit one of his teammates to bring down the ball carrier, deserves special mention as do George Cannell, veteran guard who played a charging, smashing game, and Jess Wilson, forced to play almost the entire game at his tackle position.

Portal's Squad Comes From Behind To Nose Out Tigers For Another Close Victory

INTRA-MURAL SPORTS

By KERMIT ANDERSON

With anticipation of the most bitterly contested tiffs in the history of State, Intra-Mural basketball swings forth into action this afternoon, with four games being scheduled.

The curtain will rise at four o'clock when the Los Gatos Freshmen do battle with the Sequoian Stoops. The decision will rest on just how far the Stoops stoop. In the second tussle the Seniors meet an outfit monickered, Buf-fateers.

Main's Prunepickers are expecting to pick off the Big Shots without too much exertion in the second game, at six.

Coach Hartmanft, in charge of Intra-Mural sports, has the complete schedule straightened out and expects to have the semi-finals on November 5, with the winners of the Inter-City league playing the winners of the Gold and White group, and the victors of the Club league battling the top five of the Spartan league. Finals are scheduled November 9.

Schedule for the remainder of the week follows:

Tuesday, October 13 at four—D.T.O. vs. Fire Jokers; Freshmen Flashes vs. Stafford. At six—Hayward Hotshots vs. Watsonville Lettuce Pickers; Fowlers vs. Donadios.

Wednesday, October 14 at four—Wolves vs. Hoosier Hotshots; De-Selles vs. Van Acker & Herse. No game at six.

Thursday, October 15 at four—Los Gatos Frosh vs. Watsonville; Seniors vs. Stafford. At six—Daily Staff vs. Fire Jokers; Big Shots vs. Donadios.

Aquatic Teams Loser To Club

Out-roughed and out-smarted by a larger, seemingly more experienced Olympic Club team, the San Jose State varsity water polo squad was defeated last Friday night in Spartan Pool by the score of 12-2.

Sparta's junior squad, composed entirely of freshmen players, was defeated by the Olympian second-stringers, 7 to 4, after a hard-fought first half which saw the Olympic Club trailing by a one-goal margin, 2 to 3.

The cocky and confident Olympic Club varsity was never threatened after Leslie, Spartan forward, skidded a ball beneath the waving arms of the Olympic goalie in the first few minutes of play. From then on it was all Olympic Club, the steady rain of goals interrupted only when Captain Davie Lynn threw a well-placed pass for a touch-in shot by Howard Withycombe for Sparta's second and final goal.

Olympic Club swimmers soon took advantage of their additional weight in the second half and ran up a quick lead which was cut down a bit when Al Wempe scored a beauty from the middle of the pool. The Olympic Club scored five consecutive goals in the last half, which saw the final score stand Olympic Club 7, San Jose State Juniors 4.

Place-Kick By Gordon Maybury Is Margin Of Game Victory

A concerted drive late in the second quarter spelled a 7 to 6 victory for Coach Dee Portal's freshman football aggregation in its preliminary struggle with the College of Pacific Frosh in Spartan Stadium last Saturday.

PACIFIC SCORES

After being scored on with a 17-yard pass midway in the first period, the first-year men came back and waited for an opportune moment to unleash their tricks. With but a few minutes remaining before the half, the Spartan Babes recovered a fumble on the Pacific 30, but an offside penalty and several incomplete passes lost them the ball. A few plays later, Bill Nobile, Frosh center, swooped down on a loose ball to recover the fumble on the C.O.P. 34-yard marker and here the San Jose team began to move.

FAVOR AND ZIMMERMAN

Leroy Zimmerman broke through for 14 yards to the 20. On a reverse, Favor rambled to the 11, and then Zimmerman cracked over center for a first down, but an offside penalty put the pigskin back on the 16. Favor earned that back on the next play and carried the ball to the nine yard line, and in two more plays he scooted over the line for the score. Gordon Mayberry called on his educated toe for the conversion point, and the ball sailed straight between the up-rights for the winning digit.

The first part of the annual game was very much of a see-saw style. Pacific threatened more than once, but a fighting Spartan line, and an airtight pass defense stopped the Tigers with the one exception that produced the score. Early in the second stanza, Zimmerman intercepted an opponent pass and ran 35 yards, but Pacific retaliated a few plays later to grab a Spartan heave.

The beginning of the second half saw another drive, but the Tigers held this time. Zimmerman had just punted to the Pacific two-yard marker where Harrell pounced on the ball. C.O.P. kicked to Favor on the 40 and Larry returned to the 33. Stewart, on a reverse collected eight yards, but a penalty for too much time in the huddle set the Spartans back five yards. A few plays later, the Stockton lads were penalized for holding and the local team had a scoring chance, but a scrimmage loss and incomplete passes lost it.

TIGERS THREATEN

The opening play of the fourth quarter was a beautiful 34-yard aerial toss from Mike Polka to Ken Meyers that placed the ball on the Spartan four-yard marker. An offside penalty put the pigskin back on the line, but Klientz made four, lost another four, and then heaved two incomplete passes to supposedly quell the threat, but a defensive holding penalty on Portal's team gave the Tigers a first down on the three yard stripe. However, the first play saw a charging line smear the Pacific backs, and Doan Carmody pounced on a fumble and recovered on the three yard line.

The Spartan Babes, with two wins under their belt, now go into stiff practice sessions for next Saturday's "big game" with the husky Santa Clara Frosh.

'Help! Police!' Screamed Elnora; Mingrone Is Expected To Live

"They tried to kill me!" cried Peter Mingrone, as he tenderly stroked the many-hued bruise encircling his left eye and ruefully indicated the rapidly rising second story on top of his head.

Today's real life hero as a result of last Thursday's terrific single-handed struggle with Willie Wiltberger's ten o'clock class of future protectors of law, order—and maidens in distress, Mingrone was the "cause of it all" when a dishevelled shrieking girl burst into the class crying "Help!"

'PROTECT NELL'

At the first shriek the group rose in a body and as "Our Little Nell" went into a second string of hysterical ejaculations, they stampeded the door and quite decisively halted the progress of Villain Mingrone who, in hot pursuit, was flourishing a six shooter and shouting "I'll get you, you ....!"

After that, things happened so swiftly no one knew what it was all about until a rescuer in the form of instructor Wiltberger dragged Poor Pete's body away from the enthusiastic onslaught of the police students while other members of the group caught the desperate girl as she attempted to "end it all" by throwing herself out the window.

BENTEL'S BRAIN CHILD

Dwight Bentel who was addressing the class when the interruption occurred finally succeeded in restoring order and confessed that the idea of the whole scene was born and nurtured in his journalistic mind as the most apt way of illustrating his lecture on what happens to the observing faculties of people who are witness to accidents or crimes.

Amid the boos and sighs of disappointments issuing from the other science classes who had come to see what it was all about, the girl in the story pushed the hair away from her face to reveal the grinning countenance of Elnora Christiansen. "Did we make it real enough?" she inquired of her journalism instructor.

HE FORGOT

The perpetrator of the melodrama admitted that he had neglected to allow for the chivalrous tendencies and pugnacious abilities of the police students.

"Yeah, I got more than I bargained for, too," Pete added, as he went on stroking his black eye.

Regular meeting of the social dancing class will be held tonight 8 o'clock.
